The Rainbow Room has one of the most breath taking views of the "city of dreams" at 65 floors up of the Comcast Building at the Rockefeller Plaza. This venue is the second highest restaurant in New York City and has been used to shoot scenes for numerous of films and TV shows in pop culture. This stunning room has also been home to luxury events for celebrities, politicians, and mulit-million dollar companies. Chosen Few member Frank Alexander, provided décor and florals for the tables, creating a impressive presentation to complement the Rainbow Room's classic beauty and the striking views of New York City.

Before guests took their seats, they enjoyed champagne and hors d'oeuvres while having their fortunes and auras read. Once seated, Katz took the floor to welcome everyone and thank her beloved Chosen Few members for joining her that afternoon. Katz stated, "We are here to celebrate true excellence in the events industry, my Chosen Few." She continued, "These event professionals are part of my extended family and this community represents the best of the best... and when the best of the best come together, nothing can stop them." After the applause died down, Katz thanked her Gourmet Advisory Service team for all their hard work and everyone sat for a delicious four-course menu curated by Katz. The menu's entrée, the Rainbow Room's famous Chicken Pot Pie, was the star of the meal offering up what Katz exclaimed was the best in New York City.
